WELCOMING HENRY A. MEYER. THE BROOKYN YOUNG REPUBLICAN CLUB

PROMISES HIM ITS HEARTY SUPPORT. Whole-hearted enthusiasm characterized the meeting of the Brooklyn Young Men's Republican Club last evening, and a welcome was given to Henry A. Meyer which showed that the club will work for his election as Mayor as it did for the election of Seth Low in 1881 and 1883. Before Mr. Meyer appeared resolutions were adopted heartily indorsing his nomination and those of his associates on the city ticket. Speeches were made by Charles A. Schieren, president of the club; William H. Williams, ex-Senator Stephen M. Griswold, D. G. Harriman, S. S. Whitehouse, F. H.

Field and Major B. R. Corwin.
When Mr. Meyer entered the room resounded with cheers, and cries of "What's the matter with Meyer?" and "He's all right." When President Schieren introduced Mr. Meyer he responded with a brief speech. He said in part :

He said in part:

Hrooklyn knows what their club can do when aroused. It has done invaluable service for municipal reform. The same questions confront us now as in the Low campaigns. It will be my ambition to devote my entire time to the task of conducting the affairs of the fourth largest city in the country. I realize the responsibility, but with Goft's help I do not fear the task. (Applause.)

The Democrats try to turn attention from the real issues by ridicule, but let us arose the people to action and hurl from power the men who have unscrupulously and nuwarrantably held the reins of power so long. I know your support will aid the entire Republican takket in its triumphant march to victory. (Applause.)

President Schieren promised to investigate the inlegal registration in lodging-honses. The members inegal registration in lodging houses. The members of the club shook hands with Mr. Meyer and gave him many assurances of cordial support.

DEMOCRATIC ORATORY TO BE TURNED ON. OVER FIVE HUNDRED SPRECHES TO BE DE-LIVERED BETWEEN NOW AND ELECTION.

Ever since the Democratic State Committee got its great scare by Mr. Croker's announcement that he was going to send 100 Tammany braves broadcast over the State to talk to the "countrymen" and show them that Tammany "has no horns," the managers of the Democratic canvass thave been keeping the tiger in the back-The 100 speakers were not sent out. fact, it ha been distinctly and carefully asserted that the plan has been given up. The State Committee knew too well how disastrous it would be to Democratic prospects to let the Tammany braves get loose above the Harlom River, and Mr. Croker and his little scheme were squeiched. But it must not be supposed that the idea of whitewashing Tammany has been abandoned. Tammany needs a whitewashing just as much as ever and it is growing more and more important to the De mocracy every day that active steps be taken to counteract the effect of the vigorous Republican canvass.

The plan of campaign has therefore been changed and the Democratic State Committee has insisted on managing the speaking-canvass itself, without any open interference from Tammany. To-morrow the speechmaking will be begun north of the Harlem and between now and election day the committee declares that it will cause over 500 speeches to be delivered in all parts of the State. Outside help has been called in and to such men as Senators Carlisle and Gorman, Congressman Crisp and Barnes Compton, chairman of the Maryland Democratic State Committee, will be delegated the disagreeable task of glving Tammany a good character. Senator Carlisle will make his first attempt to show how good and pure and patriotic are attempt to show how good and pure and patriotic are Croker, Scannell, Stokes, and their following, at Jamestown. Mr. Crisp will take up his Herculean task as soon as he has finished explaining to the voters of Ohio what his party's attitude on silver really is.

Roswell P. Flower arrived in the city inst night, Ex-Speaker Sheehan is expected to-day. It is announced that both will address the Democratic mass-meeting in Harlem to-morrow night.

PASSETT AND VROOMAN TO COLORED VOTERS At a meeting of the executive committee of the colored Republican voters of the City and County of New-York, held last night at No. 56 Clinton Place, arrangements for the great mass-meeting of colored voters to be held to-morrow evening in Cooper Union were perfected. The meeting will be preceded by a parade of the Charles summer Pioneer Corps of the XIth Assembly District, and the Vth Assembly District Colored Espablica Club. About 1,000 men will be in line. The parade will form at South Fifth-ave. and Prince-st., whence it will march up South Fifth-ave. to Bleecker-st., through Eleecker to Macdougal, through Macdongal to Clinton Place, through Chatton Place to Cooper Union. The parade will be headed by Johnson's brass band.

At the Cooper Union meeting Charles W. Anderson will preside. The spenkers will be Jacob Sloat Fassett, John W. Vrooman, the Rev. Dr. William B. Derrick; John M. Langston, of Virginia; James M. Townsend, of Indian; J. C. Dancy, of North Caro-lina, and E. F. Shepard.

EX-CONGRESSMAN HORR IN ORANGE COUNTY. Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 17 (Special).-The campaign was formally opened here to-night by an enthusiastic mass-meeting addressed by ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan. Over a thousand people were present. The meeting was opened by W. T. Slauson, president of the Middletown Republican Club, and ex-Alderman H. H. Crane presided. Mr. Horr made his customary powerful argument, treating of the tartif, coinage and the State Issues this year. His address was liberally punctuated with applause and the name of Fassett was received with great enthusiasm. The lively interest of Middletown Republicans in the politi-cal questions of the day and in this campaign was made plainly evident. The party is harmonious here and in good working order.

HENRY BRISTOW NAMED FOR CONGRESS. The Republican Executive Committee in Brooklyn last evening placed in nomination Honry Bristow for member of Congress in the 11d District of the State. His Democratic opponent is Mayor Chapin. Bristow is about fifty years old, and an active business He has long been a member of the Republican committees and active in politics. Mr. Bristow lives in the Twenty-Second Ward. He promises to conduct his campaign against Chapin in the water-deal matter.

VOTERS ANXIOUS TO BE REGISTERED. Peckskilf, Oct. 17 (Special).-To-day has been the first registration day under the amended Ballot law, which provides for two registry days instead of three as last fall. The registry shows a great increase over the first day of last year. Unusual effort was made by the Republican managers to have the full Repub he hepublican and the registry books contain a magnificent Republican showing. In nine wards of this city the total registry is 2,500, as against 2,031 the first day of last year. Gains are made in all the wards. The largest gain is in the First Ward, the Republican banner ward. Its increase is 125 over last year.

GENERAL RAUM AND BARKER'S DISMISSAL. Chicago, Oct. 17 (Special).-" The statements sent but from Washington that Clerk Barker was dismissed from the Pension Department for being a partisan of mine and that therefore I am in disfavor with the President, well illustrates the mendacious character of the Green B. emotion born of a $50,000 commission for selling the most celebrated breedling establishment in the United States, had gone down on his knees and begged the spectators to be still, lest the slightest noise might cause the monarch of the Nursery to do himself or somebody near the rail some hurt. No nobier beast was ever led into a sale ring. He filled the eye completely, and all feasted their gaze upon him. A description of him is published below. His almost human eye looked boldly into the hundreds of faces around him. It glowed like a star and was brimful of intelligence. He was quiet as a lamb in the hands of the studgroom, a friend of long-standing, and never once did he betray the slightest fear or the least indication of temper.

The auctioneer had no trouble whatever in selling him. There were but two bids, and they came from two well-known men seated on opposite sides of the ring, facing each other—Pierre Lorillard, master of Rancocas, and Charles Reed, of Fairview.

Mr. Lorillard's bid was $50,000. It seemed generous enough, but before the words had left his lips Mr. Reed broke the silence with:

LADY HENRY SOMERSET'S TALK.

SHE PRAISES HUGH PRICE HUGHES'S WORK AND HE PRAISES HERS.

Not a seat was vacant in the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 58 Seventir-ave., last evening, when Lady Henry Somerset, of England, began to speak upon mission work in the West End of London. An elo-quent, earnest and effective speaker, Lady Henry held he undivided attention of the large audience for almost an hour. Women wept at times during her remarks, and men spontaneously gave evidence of their feeling and appreciation in applause. The meeting was, she said, the first she had addressed in this city. The Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, head of the St. James's Hall Mission, was perhaps not so well known in America, she said, as in Great Britain; but all England owed him a debt of gratitude for the work he had done and was doing in England. She could testify to that, not from hearsny, but from experience and examination. Mr. Hughes had recognized the influence of women in working for the conversion of men. efforts the "Sisters of the People" had been organized. In that organization, young, beautiful women worked in the interest of humanity. In St. James's Hall Misston there was no sectarianism; professors of any and of no religion were welcome. The world had seen too long only cold Christianity. There was vice in high places as well as in low places. Christian people should try to overcome it everywhere. "Here in New-York," added Lady Henry, "you, too, have some dark spots. You, too, have children in want of dally bread. In their name, I plead with you woman say: "Oh, the poor rich! How much have they to be sorry for!' That woman said more than he knew. They have much to be sorry for."

Lady Henry was followed by Miss Price Hughes, who gave a detailed account of the workings of the mistion, gave a detailed account of the workings of the minaton, of the day nursery, of the registry office, where records of the poor children were kept, and of the efforts of the managers to inculcate everywhere the principles of Christianity.

The Rev. Mr. Hughes then spoke of the sins of the aristocracy of London, and told of the difficulty of reaching the people in high places. He praised the work, sympathy and influence of Lady Somerset and Queen Victoria in advancing Christ's cause.

MR. LEHLBACH DECLARES THAT HE WILL CON-TEST THE ELECTION-MANY EVIDENCES

TO ATTEMPT TO OUST MAYOR HAYNES,

OF FRAUD.

The Republicans in Newark have decided to contest the election of Mayor Haynes, on the ground of fraud and corruption, and will take immediate steps to carry the election before the courts. Mr. Lehlbach, the Republican candidate, was reluctant to make any centest. Valid proofs were submitted to him that he had been fairly elected Mayor and had been defrauded of his election. Convinced that he owed a duty to his party and the cause of honest elections, Mr. Lehlbach consented to make a contest and yesterday defined his position in the following statement to the public: "The Republicans of Newark believe that I have been defeated by the large number of fllegal votes east by people non-residents of the city, who have been brought here for the purpose of voting at the charter election. Many believe that if the ballot boxes are opened and a recount made the ballots will declare a majority of voters to be in my favor, and under those circumstances I will accede to the public temand and contest the election of Mayor Haynes. Legal steps will be taken at once to make a thorough investigation, in order to ascertain what the hones expression of the people was who were entitled to vote at the charter election on October 13.

"Such a contest can be an injury to no one. If it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that Mayor Haynes is honestly and fairly defeated it can do him and his party no harm. If, on the contrary, by opening the ballot boxes, it is proven that eno irregularities in the count have been committed to defeat me; if it can be shown that there were large number of illegal votes cast by men who were bought and paid for their services from a campaign fund, it is time that the public should know it. "For that reason I am determined to have a con test, knowing, so far as my campaign was concerned that it was conducted by me in an honest and up right way, in appealing only to the voters by arguments on the pernicious legislation of the Democratic managers who now have control of their party. As far as the line of conduct in making this contest is concerned I consider it prudent to refrain from giving any information to the press, because it might interwith the ends of justice."

Mr. Lehlbach said personally that he would push Mr. Lehlbach said personally that he would push the matter himself. Many affidavits have been obtained showing frand and corruption. Yesterday a meeting of lawyers was held to get the matter in legal shape. The ballot-boxes are all at the City Hall and will be carefully guarded until they can be opened in court. To-morrow at noon the Common Council will meet to canvass the returns and delare the results. The total vote on the face of the returns is Lehlbach, 16,847; Haynes, 17,043; Parmly (Ind.
